Connecting to Kink

Safely exploring your BDSM
fantasies online
by I.G. Frederick

A collection of essays, tips, personal experience, and opinion to help you safely explore your BDSM fantasies online, whether you just discovered online kink, tried unsuccessfully to connect with someone, or want to satisfy your curiosity.

“I.G. Frederick does what few other BDSM writers and practitioners have done, acknowledging that many find their way into kink online. This book offers vital guidance on how to sensibly and safely explore the issues and the landscape - virtually first, and then in the flesh.”

Remittance Girl, author of Gaijin and The Waiting Room

About the Author

I.G. Frederick trades words for cash, specializing in erotic and transgressive fiction and poetry since 2001. Her short stories appear in Hustler Fantasies, Forum, Foreplay, and Desire Presents, as well as in electronic, audio, and print anthologies. Her fiction and poetry celebrate finding love in BDSM relationships from the authority of one enjoying that for more than a decade.

A former newspaper reporter and trained observer, I.G. Frederick also watches the many ways human interactions turn ugly. She writes about abusive and tragic relationships as Korin I. Dushayl.

In addition, I.G. Frederick shares her BDSM knowledge and experience in her nonfiction work. She won the National Leather Association — International Cynthia Slater Nonfiction Article Award in 2014, received the Rose & Thorn Leather Woman of the Year award in 2008, and presents on various topics at area events.

A FemDom, Ms. Frederick owns the man she adores. Although dominant in the rest of his life, he demonstrates his love by serving as her submissive.
